When your personality is stereotyped by a certain group of persons, they will never see you beyond the wall they created. No matter what you do, you are always whom they've framed in their mind, not who you are.

Hassan went against #IS norm to insist I get scoops locally, instead of #ISWAP giving IS media. I got the scoop on UNIMAID lecturers from him, he has been a source before the split, as deputy to Abu Zinnari/Tasi. He has relatives here reading this, that know of his death in 2017.

Baban Hassan was killed by the NAF in an operation they called operation ruwan wuta around 1st to 3rd November 2017. @A_Salkida is correct on that. Murphy's piece is needless. The days of Biko Haram playing double with their fighters and commanders is over.

Those of us reporting the crisis in Northeast #Nigeria are not the problem. Block off the attacks, there won't be anything to report, stop the lies, there won't be anything to refute. The best way out of this crisis is, accountability and transparency. This nation is ours too!
